MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's mother, near Roseburg, June 15, by the Rev. F. Coater, Mr. John P. Umphrey and Miss Ida L. Moore, all of Fremont.

—The picnic at Roseburg to-morrow promises to be a gigantic affair. The Crosswell band have been engaged to be present, and there will, no doubt, be a pleasant time spent.

—The new post office which we have been anxiously waiting for is completed. It has 112 lock-boxes fitted up in fine style and the work which was all done by David Brown, is a credit to him.

—The band boys have been practicing for some time past making preparations for the Fourth of July. We are glad to see them start up again as it makes quite an addition to a town to have a good band.

—An Auction Sale will be held on the farm of Wm. Green, at Green's Corners, on Friday, June 30th, commencing at 10 a. m. A number of articles consisting of wagons, buggies, harness, farming tools and household furniture will be disposed of.

—Emmet Holcomb who has been stumping for John Holden escaped what might have been a serious accident. The other day while the stump machine was at work he got fast between the lever and stump and remained there a few minutes before anyone noticed him. It was with difficulty they succeeded in releasing him.

—Many of our readers will be glad to learn that F. S. Poole, who a short time ago kept the grocery now owned by E. Gordon, has returned to town and entered in Agricultural Implement business. Mr. Poole is agent for the Rawson reapers and mowers, steam threshers, &c. He handles a good machine and no doubt will succeed in disposing of quite a number this season.

—The dance at C. F. Michaels' hall last Tuesday evening was a decided success. Over fifty numbers were sold and they all tripped the "fantastic toe" until five in the morning. He intends giving another dance on the evening of July 4th, at which time he will have to make more room to allow them all to take part.

—The people of Lyna will give a grand picnic on July 4th, in John Houghton's grove. Ice-cream, lemonade and other things will be sold on the ground all day. A grand dinner will take place at about 12 o'clock for which a small price will be charged. Swings and other amusements on the grounds. Proceeds to apply on pastor's salary. All are invited.

—James A. Menzies, son of James Menzies of this town, and formerly an employee at the Echo office, is now editor and manager of the Expositor, a weekly paper published at Brockway Centre, Mich. Jim's paper is a live, newsy sheet, and is in good hands. The Expositor is not the only paper that owes much of its success to the enterprise and talent of Canadians.—Amherstburg, (Ont.) Echo.

—The WEEKLY EXPOSITOR, a newspaper recently established at Brockway Centre, is on our table. The Editor, T. Sutton, of the Richmond Review, is publisher; and Jas. A. Menzies, editor and manager. Both are experienced newspaper men and are making a good paper of the EXPOSITOR from the start. We wish them abundant success.—Creswell Democrat.

—The Chicago & Grand Trunk railroad depot at Imley City, Mich., was entered last Monday night at 1 o'clock by two masked men, who, by the display of revolvers, forced the night operator to deliver up the mail pouch left by the train from the west at 9:47 p. m., also a small amount of change from the money drawer. The pouch was found this morning, with its contents gone. This is the second mail robbery at that place since the first of May.

—A terrific storm visited this place on Sunday last, and a great deal of damage was done in the village and surrounding country. It lasted but a short time. Mr. Temple's house which is not quite completed was lifted from the foundation and carried about ten feet. Supervisor Jones' house was moved only about a foot from its place. Thomas Collins' barn was blown down and the roof was taken off the barn on Chene's old place. A number of the citizens got together and moved Mr. Temple's house to its place. Mr. Jones blocked his where it stood.

—In last week's issue in speaking of the actions of Paddy Carey and his wife, we said they were from the vicinity of "Hogtown" which has caused the feelings of the people at Melvin. The way these parties conducted themselves on our streets, was a disgrace, to say the least, and on asking where they were from, were informed as stated above. We are sure the people of Melvin will feel differently when we say that we did not mean to ensure one person for the deeds of his fellow-being, and think there are as good and respectable citizens at Melvin as elsewhere.

Brockway.

Road work is the general issue of the day. Our pathmaster J. W. Gustin is making some great improvements to our village in the construction of some very fine side walks which is a great necessity and much needed.

Parkinson & Harris are running their saw mill in full blast this week and are doing first-class work. By the looks of their log yard we should think it would take quite a few days to get them all sawed out.

D. H. Smith and R. Hamilton (carriage trimmers) went to Almont Tuesday, to trim some jobs for Sullivan & Green. They are expected back next week to do some more trimming for W. & J. Harris.

W. H. Gowan met with quite an accident Monday, in Dr. W. Gowan's new house, by making a mis-step out of the door and falling striking his back on the door-sill which, no doubt, will lay him up for a few days.

C. Washburn has a very fine garden no doubt the best in town and is admired by everyone.

W. & J. Harris built to order a very fine Dexter Queen buggy, with leather top, for Peter McNulty, of Creswell. He came after it last Friday and was very much pleased with it and went away smiling. W. & J. Harris claim it was the finest job they turned out this season.

Peninsula Tent of the K. O. T. M. is booming, five candidates to initiate Monday night. Sir Kt. J. W. Gustin the commander feels as happy as a bee on a big sun-flower.

W. & J. Harris have friends from Paris, Canada, visiting them this week.

Social at W. H. Ballentine's next Friday evening. See.

Everybody Read This!

Law the man with the mule,
Takes everything cool,
But he keeps moving about,
His wagon runs easy.
When he keeps it greasy,
And the little mules are stout,
He draws goods by the load,
And can be found on the road,
Between the city and station,
He is not a dead beat,
But will work so cheap,
As to almost surprise the Nation.
